

Natural Capital Project Annual Meeting & Training

March 26 - 28, 2014

Stanford University, Palo Alto, CA

This year's meeting is a great opportunity to learn more about our approach and tools to incorporate natural capital information in decision-making. Participants will be exposed to novel ways to use our software (including the latest InVEST models and our newest software, RIOS), and receive personalized help from our scientists, programmers and policy experts. The agenda includes numerous opportunities to network with others visiting from around the world. We also remind you to bring posters showcasing your latest work for the evening session on Wednesday, March 26th.

This training will:

- Introduce participants to the concepts of natural capital and valuing nature
- Illustrate how natural capital information can inform key policy, management, and business decisions
- Demonstrate techniques for mapping and modeling ecosystem services and provide resources for beginner, intermediate, and expert training
- Support interested individuals to design an ecosystem service project based on their goals, decision context, capacity, and available data
